

Simply from My Soul with a Twist

Many people dislike poetry because they find it difficult to understand. In Simply from My Soul (With a Twist), Joy Conway and Imogene Menzies present poems for non-literary scholars who nevertheless value honest self-expression. The works within this collaboration, though simple and basic, reflect the depth of the authors' emotions. From faith, to social issues, to romantic dilemmas, Conway and Menzies lay out exactly what's on their minds . . . and in their souls.
