

Vines, Wines and other Crimes: The Italian Taste for Short Crime Stories

Life is too short to drink bad wine (Anonymous) For as long as the world has existed, so has crime. (Cain docet). Not too long after, wine was created. These two events are not necessarily connected, but according to our 14 authors, they very well could be. Therefore, here is a collection of short crime novels that have wine as a common theme; white, red, sparkling, still, sweet, aged, barrique, vintage... poisoned. But not only: wine as a weapon, motive, cause, means, alibi. Each author has interpreted this theme differently, each according to their own individual tastes and tendencies. The result is an anthology full of dramatic turn of events, disastrous toasts, and lethal tastings.
