

Face Down Among the Winchester Geese

It is the spring of 1563, and Susanna, Lady Appleton, wants only to tend to the medicinal herbs in the garden of her London townhouse. But the appearance of a mysterious veiled woman disrupts her plans. Is the woman just another mistress of Roberts, her forever-philandering husband? When the woman is found dead with a snapped neck in London's notorious brothel district, and her last known visitor was Robert, Lady Appleton is forced to investigate. As she delves deeper into the mystery she uncovers a string of murders of dark-haired women, all occurring on St. Marks Day, and, most perplexing, all with a goose feather left by the bodies. For Susanna, nobody, not even her own husband, is above suspicion. Authentic detailing, glimpses of historical characters, and a stand-out heroine will endear this to fans of historicals Library Journal; Creible characters and a convincingly detailed background make this a solid bet for historical mystery fans Publishers Weekly
