

Moonstone Magic: A Book of Short Stories by Violet Apted

Moonstone Magic is a detective novel that takes readers along on a time travel journey from a moonstone to ghosts, and ultimately, to love. When a writer finds a link allowing her to travel in time, she discovers many things, including how to win the lottery! But she also uncovers a shocking revelation that she is unable to write about. The story unfolds as she must find her own way to handle the situation in which she has found herself, as well as the consequences. Stories of different themes follow, including murder, ghosts, cosmetic surgery, heartbreak, and love, which readers will find absorbing and interesting. Violet Apted's mother used to say she was born with a pen in her hand. She grew up during World War II in Ashford Kent, UK. At that time it was a quaint little market town steeped in history. Now it is the main train link to France by the Channel Tunnel. A retired teacher, the author lives in Moreton Bay, Queensland, Australia. This is her fifth book.
