

Black Beauties

Jazmine, Kendra, and Nya all grew up together. Throughout their youth they all seemed to look out for each other. They helped each other through rough situations and sometimes betrayed each other, but still remained friends. When they grew older life happened and each girl went through her own personal tragedy.

Jazmine was the strong one of the three. She was kicked out of her mothers house at the young age of fifteen, then endured the loss of her child and the father, but she still held it together. It seemed as though nothing could break her until she found out the reason why her family was killed.

Kendra was the sweet one of the bunch. She had good family structure in her home, where she was given morals and values. Then, she met and married, Damon. She found out that life is not a fairy tale, especially when you get beat until you black and blue. Nya was raised in the church. She was a preachers daughter. She was raped at eleven. She thought she had overcome the rape and became a survivor, but throughout her life her behavior proved otherwise. She betrayed the love and trust of her friends and family. She becomes a drug-addicted stripper prostitute. She find and then loses love all because of her manipulative ways. Throughout all of the triumphs the girls still remains friends. It seems that nothing can break their friendship, until hidden secrets and lies surface. Will the girls friendship survive the challenges in which they face or will they let them break them apart?
